As you are aware Ministry of Skill Development and Entrepreneurship, Government of India has launched a Mission for Apprenticeship training under the skill India Mission to give greater opportunity to our youth to enhance their skills for increasing their employment opportunity as well as to build the entrepreneurship skills among them.

2. As per amended Apprentices Act, 1961 and apprenticeship Rules, 1973, each establishment shall engage Apprentices in a band of 2.5% to 10% of the total strength of the establishment. As per instructions issued from time to time from Railway Board, Zonal Railways have been directed to engage act apprentices at the level of 2.5% of sanctioned strength and PUs at the level of 5% of sanctioned strength.

3. In the 36th meeting of Central Apprenticeship Council, it has been reiterated that engagement of Act Apprentice at the level of 2.5% of sanctioned strength is the bare minimum statutory obligation and hence it is to be strictly complied with.
