Sub: Payment of additional Dearness Allowance to Railway employees.

Reference Railway Ministry's letters No. PCIII/73/DA dated 9.9.1975 and 9.10.1975 on the above subject.

The President is pleased to decide that the rates of additional dearness allowance sanctioned to Railway employees therein shall be modified as follows with effect from 1st July, 1976:

Pay range	Rate of additional dearness allowance per mensem
Up to Rs.300	14% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 28/- and maximum of Rs. 40/-
Above Rs.300 and up to Rs. 900/-	10% of pay subject to a minimum of Rs. 40/- and maximum of Rs. 80.

Above Rs. 900/- and upto Rs.920/-	Amount by which pay falls short of Rs. 980.
Above Rs. 920/- and upto Rs. 2250/-	Rs. 60 subject to marginal adjustments in all cases including at higher pay ranges so that pay plus total dearness allowance (including additional dearness allowance payable under these orders) does not exceed Rs. 2400.

Note: The payments on account of additional dearness allowance will be rounded off to the nearest 10 Paise.

2. The President is also pleased to decide that the excess payments of additional dearness allowance made to the employees since 1.7.1976 may be recovered in five instalments from their pay during the rest of the current financial year i.e. from their pay for October 1976 to February, 1977. The amount to be credited to Compulsory Deposit under the Additional Emoluments (Compulsory Deposit) Act, 1974, will be calculated at 50% of the net additional dearness allowance payable during these five months, taking into account the recovery of the excess payments of additional dearness allowance. In the case of employees who are not in service now either due to retirement, death, resignation, etc., or who may be retiring in the immediate future, it should, however, be ensured that the excess payments of additional dearness allowance are fully adjusted from their final death-cum-retirement gratuity, etc.
